

TRUTH alive!

is a new Connecticut-based ministry led by a diverse team with deep Connecticut roots...

...plus a wealth of coast-to-coast
and international experience!

Meet the 2021 TRUTH alive! Leadership Team

Randy McArthur
President and Media Spokesperson

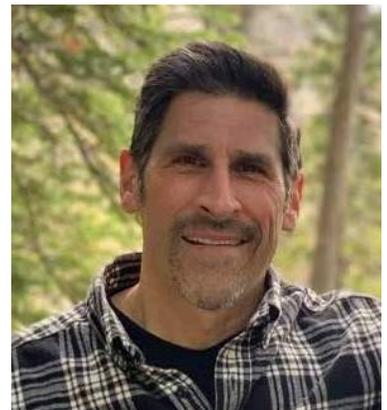

Randy was born and raised in North Georgia, and gave his life to Jesus at age 11. After graduating from high school in Kentucky, Randy served our nation in the U.S. Air Force. In 1982, he moved to Connecticut and attended Quinnipiac University in Hamden while working for G.R. Cummings, a construction company in Meriden. After that, he had a 23-year career at Live Nation, serving as General Manager of the Oakdale Theatre in Wallingford and the Xfinity Amphitheater in Hartford. In 2010, he stepped out of the corporate world and joined The Reach Foundation in Farmington, an organization that helps children in need. In 2018, Randy left to pursue full-time ministry including bus ministry for inner-city children, leading older youths on a mission trip, ministering in Haiti and the Dominican Republic, and serving as guest preacher. Randy and his wife worship with various churches and reside in Cheshire.

Mason Rambarose
Vice President

Mason was born in Fremont, California and raised in New York. In 2012, his family relocated to Portland, Connecticut. Mason is a former atheist who was saved by Jesus at age 20. After earning a Bachelor's in Biology at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield and working as a certified ACE personal trainer, Mason received a Master's in Christian Apologetics through Liberty University. His passion is teaching and defending the gospel. Mason works part-time as a pastoral assistant at Crossroads Community Cathedral in East Hartford, and is pursuing a license to be a full-time minister. In 2020, Mason co-founded For the King, an online ministry that helps to equip Christ-followers through a display of the arts on platforms such as Instagram and YouTube. Mason hopes to deliver the gospel to younger generations. He is a resident of Portland.

Robert LeBlanc
Secretary

Bob was born and raised in Westfield, Massachusetts. In 1987, after graduating from college, he settled in the Hartford area to begin a career in aerospace engineering and business development at Pratt & Whitney and other Connecticut-based companies. Bob made a profession of faith in Jesus at age 26. Since then, he has served in various areas of ministry, including deacon and board member at Crossroads Community Cathedral in East Hartford. Bob is a passionate leader who currently serves as director of Strong Enough Men's Ministry, which hosts retreats to bring the love of Christ and spiritual renewal to men throughout southern New England. Bob and his wife reside in Manchester.

Jeffrey Woods
Treasurer

Jeffrey Woods was raised in California. He received Jesus as his Savior and Lord in 1975 during the powerful Jesus Movement, at Calvary Chapel in Costa Mesa. In 1980, he was physically healed through the prayers of Pastor John Wimber, founder of the Vineyard Church in Yorba Linda. For 33 years, he worked for the FDIC, serving in real estate management and marketing; building and facilities operations; construction management; security and emergency preparedness. He also served as Managing Agent of a Savings & Loan Association. He has lived and worked in California, Oregon, Colorado, Connecticut and New York. Jeffrey has attended Crossroads Community Cathedral in East Hartford and East Windsor for the past 21 years. He retired in 2019 and volunteers with the church and Strong Enough Men's Ministry. He and his wife Cindy reside in Bolton.

More on next page...

Pastor Ermias Feleke
Director

Ermias was born and raised in a Christian family in Ethiopia. He made a personal decision to follow Jesus at age 12, and became involved in Christian ministry through his Sunday School class. At 18, he received a calling of the Lord and decided to formally study the scriptures in a theological seminary. While studying at an Assemblies of God Bible College, Ermias served as church youth ministry leader and mentored emerging leaders. He then served as a faculty member of a Bible Academy in Europe while pursuing his Master's of Divinity. In 2016, he moved to the USA. He's very passionate about reaching the nations with the gospel of Jesus Christ. He currently serves as the Site Director at Southeastern University at Crossroads in East Hartford, and resides in East Windsor.

Pastor Ariel Heriveaux
Director

Ariel was born and raised in a Christian family in Haiti. He gave his life to Jesus at age 8. After graduating from high school, he enrolled in seminary and served as pastor of a small congregation, where he was ordained. Ariel then pursued a Master's in Theology in Montreal in Quebec, Canada. While there, he served as assistant pastor of a church in Laval and pastor of another church in Lac Megantic. After marrying Euvrena, a Haitian woman living in Stamford, Ariel emigrated to the USA and joined the Stratford Baptist Church, becoming youth pastor and active in Evangelism Explosion. Since 2012, the Lord has called Ariel to Silliman Memorial Baptist Church in Bridgeport, a melting pot of many nations of the world. Ariel and his wife reside in Meriden.

Henley Solomon, Jr.
Director

Henley Solomon, Jr., was born and raised in Hartford by a father from Jamaica and a mother from England. Since childhood, he has been active at Rehoboth Church of God in Bloomfield, where he currently serves on the worship team, pastor's care committee, and as assistant director of creative arts. At an early age, Henley discovered his calling to the arts and pursued a double major in Theater Arts and English at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield. After experiencing the saving power of the gospel, he co-founded For The King, an online ministry. Henley has acted at venues in Fairfield, Manchester and Hartford; done commercial work for local TV stations; received additional training from Music Theater CT of Westport, and taught at CT Inclusive Arts in West Hartford. He is the founder of BEYONDarts, a foundation that empowers artists. He works at Conard High School in West Hartford, and resides in Hartford.

Cindy Woods
Director

Cindy grew up in a troubled family in southern California, and was in third grade when she asked Jesus to be her Savior. Her new-found faith in God and the Bible became her comfort and strength. When she married Jeffrey in 1974, she worked at an insurance company. With the arrival of their first child, Cindy opted to become a stay-at-home mom. She was involved in children's ministry and homeschooled at various times during her children's elementary years. She was a member of Citizens for Excellence in Education and led a local chapter in Southern California. When Jeff was transferred to Connecticut in 1994, Cindy completed her education and became certified to teach. She taught in the Manchester Public Schools for 21 years, as an elementary school teacher and an elementary STEM teacher. Now retired, Cindy is active in ministry as a prayer intercessor and volunteer at Crossroads Community Cathedral. Cindy and her husband Jeffrey reside in Bolton.

1145 Prospect Road, Cheshire, CT 06410-1925
Phone: 203.213.6937 Email: info@TruthAlive.today
Web: TruthAlive.today

TRUTH alive!
Celebrating Hope, Love & Healing that Transforms